ARCTIC LIFE exhibit closes early
Museum at the Mall, Park Place Centre Court

The exhibit Arctic Life, an exhibition featuring historic photographs by the Lomen Brothers on life in the cold climate of Canada's north, complemented by a selection of Inuit art from The University of Lethbridge Collection, has closed early due to specialty leasing requirements at Park Place Shopping Centre. The Museum at the Mall display was originally scheduled to run to September 5. We apologize for any inconveniences this may cause.

Look for the next exhibit to be up in time for this year's ArtWalk, scheduled for Saturday, September 17.

The Galt New Year's Eve Gala 2005

The Friends Society of the Galt Museum is hosting a New Year's Eve Gala in the newly expanded museum... bringing you the first opportunity to view the new facility and one of the most spectacular views in Lethbridge before it opens to the public on May 6, 2006!

The dinner will be catered by the Lethbridge Lodge and music for dancing will be provided by Herb Hicks and the Chameleons. The formal event will support educational programs at the Galt.

Tickets are $100 per person. Reserved corporate tables for 8 are $1000. Tickets will be on sale at the Galt Gift Shop at the Mall by September 19. Reservations are also being taken by phone; call the event chair, Mary Oordt, at 403.320-1008 or email oordt@shaw.ca

The Galt Gift Shop highlights some very talented local artists and artisans, including landscape prints by Don Frache [1919-1994], our featured artist this month. Educated at LCI, Don's love of art was developed early, and his works and achievements are many, ranging from landscapes and murals to portraits and commissioned work [he painted Paul Newman's portrait while the actor filmed Buffalo Bill]. Frache portraits can be found at a number of local medical clinics. The Galt Gift Shop carries Frache landscapes such as Cameron Falls, Chief Mountain and Wheat Field Stooks. We invite you to view this wonderful work at our location at Park Place Shopping Centre, across from MasterCuts... call 320-4111 for details.
