

FEES FOR ARCHIVES SERVICES: FOR PROFIT

Effective October 2007

For Profit fees apply to uses where research information or copies of collection items are to be published, exhibited or broadcast in any form for commercial gain. This category includes any use of Archives research information or copies of collection items where the client has the expectation or intention of making a financial profit through the use of the information or items, either by themselves or as elements of another product or service.

For Profit fees include one-time use of Archives collection items in a publication, on a website, as decoration, etc. Any additional use of the items requires the permission of the Galt Museum & Archives, and is subject to payment of an additional fee. Credit must be given to Galt Museum & Archives as the source of the items.
